Dear Ehud:

I am pleased to invite you to attend the Clinton Global Initiative's 2014 Annual Meeting, to be held in New York City September 21 - 24, 2014.

CGI is a community of international leaders dedicated to developing innovative solutions to some of the world's most pressing challenges. Each of our members makes a Commitment to Action—a new, specific, and measurable plan that addresses a shared concern. CGI's approach focuses on building effective projects through partnership and creativity, while supporting our members throughout the year with opportunities for knowledge building, networking, and collaboration. With more than 2,500 commitments in over 180 countries, our members are already transforming the lives of more than 430 million people globally.

To provide additional structure to our members' work, CGI organizes the year's programming around an annual theme. The 2014 theme—"Reimagining Impact"—will expand on previous themes of "Designing for Impact" and "Mobilizing for Impact," exploring how members can measure and assess the outcomes of their commitments, celebrate success and learn from failure, and rethink their plans for more sustainable impact going forward. The year-round efforts of CGI members culminate in our Annual Meeting. Past Annual Meetings have brought together 180 current and former heads of state, 20 Nobel Peace Prize winners, and hundreds of leaders in the business and nonprofit sectors. CGI is honored to convene our tenth Annual Meeting this year, and I hope you will join us as we renew this global effort.

Your participation would provide unique insights to our members as they continue to develop successful and innovative commitments. Please designate a member of your staff to contact my Director of Foreign Policy, Mr. Ami Desai, with an RSVP on your behalf. Mr. Desai can be reached by phone at +1.212.348.0452 or via e-mail at adesai@clintonfoundation.org.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton
